OPENING OF THE MEMPHIS BRANCH.

An Excursion Trip to Clarksville. RECEPTION AT STATE LINE.

Hospitality of the Citizens of Clarksville. Road to be Finished to Memphis by next January.

Oue year ago, we had no direct railroad con unulcation with the South or Southwest. But that stigma no longer exists; and not only is the South now brought to our doors by the Lonis-ville and Nashville Raliroad, which opened through last October, but Western Tennessee and the rich treasures of the great and proluctive Southwest will soon be ponred into our lap by the completion of the road to Mem-

On Tuesday, the cars first passed over the Memphis Branch to the pleasant and truly prosperous city of Cisrksville, thirteen miles from the Tennessee line; and thus Louisville and Clarksville, and all intermediate points are rought in direct communication cach with the Clarksville, on the Cumherland river, is a ity of between five thousand and six thousand inhabitants, surrounded in all directions by a beautiful and productive country, which is earcely excelled by any in the sister States, and s the center of a large and very profitable trade. he Cumberland is navigable to Clarksville, but iring, on an sverage, six months in the year, t does not sflord water for even the smalles poats; and not only the trade of the city, but the ecessities of the whole adjacent country de andeda railroad connection with this city, at the earliest possible moment.

When, sometime ago, the Directors of the Memphis brauch promised that it should be completed through to the State line by the 1st of January, 1861, but few, indeed, believed it porsible, and not many expected, not only to see the promise literally fulfilled, but actually anticipated. But, three months before the ime promlaed, the road is done, and the cars have gone ever it; and not only is it completed, but we believe it is unequalled by any new road n the country-it is done, and well and permaently done. At the State line, this road is me by the Clarksville Railroad, which is to extend othe Tennessee river, at Paris, a distance of 33 miles, and which Is now in good running or der to Clarksville, thus making the connection between that city and this perfect.

The opening of the road between these point was appropriately celebrated by those interested more directly in its completion, as well as by their citizens and those of all intermedia

The Board of Directors of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, accompanied by a number of gentlemen whom they had invited to accom pany them, left the depot in this city, on special train, on Tuesday morning, and stopping at the more important points on the road to Bowling Green, from thence, for the first time passed over the Memphis Branch to the State Line, where they were met by a special train om Clarksville, on which were the officers of he Clarksville Road, the authorities of the city of Ciarksville, and a large number of citizener by whom, through Mr. Quartes, the President f the Clarksville Road, they were received and eartily welcomed to Tennessee, amid the roar of cannon, heart stirring music, and the warm ougratuiations of friends who are hereafter to be neighbors. A pleasant run of a few minutes through : country which may well claim at least equality with the garden spots of Bonrbon and Fayette counties, in our own State, brought the excur-sionlets to the Clarksville depot, and as the sun passed down an unclouded sky, behind the wes-tern horizon, they were welcomed in warm words of hearty greeting, fresh from honest hearts, to the present terminus of the road. Louisville and Clarksville became near neighhors and were bound together in the stro

At Clarksville, the exentsionists became the guests of the Clarksville Road, and of the city Clarksville, and well were they cared for, and jobly were they cutertained while they re nained. The hotels, and the houses of private citizens were alike thrown open. The hospital landed and honest, showed what we may exeet ln our intercourse herealter, with the peopie of this portion of Tennessec.

At night, a magnificent banquet was apread, at which several hundred were seated; and all the substantials of life, and sii the delicacles of the season, prepared in every variety of cookery, and displayed in everything that could tempt the appetite or inspire th taste, were accompunied with the finest wines, the most sparkling, and the intensest patriotist (of course the Union was saved)-the whole affair effecting equal credit in the hospitality, skill taste, tast, and good indement of the whole onled people of Clarksville. We regret that the late hour at which the exenrsion train returned last night, unavoida bly excludes a more extended notice of the banquet, of the speeches at the State line, by Messrs. Quarles and Guthrie-of the reception at the Clarksville depot-of the city and peo plc of Clarksville, and of the road over which we passed, and its officers and managers -These things will form the staple of future articles. The positive assurances of the President of the Clarksville road justifies us in congratulating the people of Louisville, in concluding this notice, on the certainty of having thorough and direct railroud communication with Memphis before the first day of uext January, an event which but few of them are execting, but which they may confidently rely THEATER.—Geraldiue was performed last night, for the third time, to a fair house, only To-night the Romance of a Poor Young Wo an, a new play which has been quite successful elsewhere, will be produced for the first time in couisville. With its reputation, the ability o Miss Bateman, and the excellent stock company which gives assurance that the play will be well performed, we shall look to see a large house.

Miss Jenny Hight created another fure ast night, by the charming style in which she executed La Gitana. Beautiful and graceful, and with a manner that is irresistibly piquant audatractive, she has become at once u favorfte with ur rather hypercritical public. We are glad to see that the farees are not the least attractive portions of the nightly theatriotherwise, with the excellent east with which they have been presented. We have not seen, or years, afterpieces so well performed as thos f Sketches in India, Object of Interest, and the College Boy. Mr. Smith was inexpressibly nuny as Dabster, Hamilton clever and dashing, as Capt. Popham, Mrs. Dickson, the penri of conbrettes, unexceptionable as the Eton Boy, and Mrs. Lorton, very clever and perfect as the little chambermaid. To-night, in addition to the new play of the Romance of a Poor Young Woman, the amusing farce of State Scerets will be presented, Mr. Smith as Gregory Thimbleweil.

ie is in fact emphatically an unfortunate man He has got on the wrong side, and it is probable hat he is becoming painfully conscions of the fact. In abandoning the Constitution, in con-senting to the surrender of the rights of his State, in bolting his own party, and in antag and disabling only himself, and scarcely disturblug the friends of the trne faith. Mr. Brown is ssly lost; and the lest thing he can do is to greed to divide time in a discussion with Mr. gentleman who has been preparing for anothe profession than polities, and who never before made a political speech. Mr. Brown and his riends evidently expected an easy conquest, and the Democracy feared the worst. Each party was disappointed. Mr. Brown made his speech, with the air of one who knew what he was about, and closed in a good humor with himself and the rest of mankind, little dreaming of the coming torm. After the first few moments of triffing nharrassment natural to one in his position Mr. Breckinkidge replied to Mr. Brown in a nanner and with a force and power which plaes him at once, in the estimation of some of the lirst men in the State and from Tennesse who heard him, among the strongest men in Kentucky. Perfectly familiar with all the facts. entirely conversant with the principles en ering into the canvass, and conscious, not so nuch of his own ability, as of the strength o his cause, a leading cilizen of unother State issures us that he made his points with the skill of a veterau, and discussed them with the ability of a statesman. Mr. Brown, we are further informed, upon authority we cannot question, feit his defeat, and could not conceal his chagriu and mortification, and his friends do not deny that he was badly worsted.

Mr. BROWN and Mr. BRECKINRIDGE are nearly the same age; they are friends, and were classnates; and feeling perfectly willing to entrust our cause into the hands of the latter we trust they will make arrangements to speak together during the canvass.

During the morning, the well known Kentucky trotting horse Zack Taylor, recently renamed Bayonne, was being driven at a pretty good trot on the speed track, when he suddenly reared and fell over upon his side, "dead as a herring red." He was the property of Mr. Ashley, of Nunda Valley, New York. He was eighteen years old, and had seen much hard service, having trotted many races. His best recorded time was 2:35, but he was said to be one of the quickest horses known to the half mile post.

The Fair Grounds, near New Albany, was alive yesterday with people, who flocked thither to attend the Fair. The horse department is well represented, and Miscellansons liall has a splendid collection of works of art, and other articles useful, not ornamental. There is a fair supply of implements in Farm and Implement Ilall. The ladies have displayed exquisite taste in the arrangement of Floral Hall, which, with Its fruits and llowers and pretty women, presents a charming appearance. [Correspondence of the Louisville Cour Editors Louiselle Courier: The State Fair opened this morning not with as large acrowd as we expected, but still with a good assemblage. The tew roay cheeked beauties of Warren present to-diny earlied themselves with a gloriously bewitching manner, asif they felt their wondrous influence and were determined to wield it. The yeomany and chivairy will be here when their claims to supremacy are challenged. The flatrodsburg Brass Band, lead by Mr. Rawden, "discoursed mostelopnent music" as they are weenstoned to say, and in truth their playing was excellent. We have heard bunds with greater reputations whose exceeding was infinitely inferior to that of the Harrodsburg band. An old "typo" it lead is among those who contribute to the harmony. The first ring to-day was for four year old bulls and upwards, then three year old, two year old, &c., &c. Cows and heifers came next, of different ages. In five regular rings Mr. Wim. Warfield took the premium, and in the herd and sweepstake ring he also took the premium.

Our farmers and those from other sections of the county are well pleased, and they are resolved to enter all the stock they can collect. The adverse circumstances which surround as here, this year, will of course be taken in consideration in comparing this with other Falis. THE PRESS.

LOUSVILLE AND NASHVILLE FREIGHTS.—A gentleman from Louisville yesterdny informed us that the blockade at Louisville still continued, without the least prospect of any change. There appears to be, from all accounts, very little head, but a good deal of tail, to the management of the Louisville and Nashville road. he Abolition newspapers constantly inform the nimost sung frond, that there are to of men at the North ready and eager, any moment, to enact John Brown raids and forays, of poisoning and arson, similar to that which was lately consummated in Texas; and that these men are only restrained from present outrage by the existence of a conservative and national Administration, utiling and able to employ the arms of the Federal to increment to repress insucretion and repel invanion.

Semanor boughts has most insolently and deflantly proclaimed from the stump, in Norfolk, his intention to advise and assist Abraham Lincoln toward the foreible coercion of any Southern State which shall retuse to submit to Abolitionist domination.

Thus it appears that whether the South shall submit to or oppose Abolition rule, we are to expect invasion in any event.

Indications of this state of feeling at the North, much more serious than the boasts of the press or the threats of the stump, are crowding fast aponour attention. Among these is the unmerons and efficient organizations of "Wide-Awake" clubs.

These organizations are of a mixed character, civil and milltery. Each club has a civil constitution, and "efficient to regulate purely business transactions." Each club is also regularly divided into companies, uniformed and drilled, nnder "Wide Awake" leaders of the Redpath stripe.

From these and similar signs, it is apparent, in case of Lincoln's election, we have tough work ent out for ns. Rowdies are like dandles in one particular. They will fight when an opportunity offers, and fight well. Those of our Southern men who are disposed to snear at l'intran courage, will find themselves mistaken when they have to encounter these "Wide Awakes." It will be no child's play. We must do our best. And the best we can do now is to prepair thoroughly for the work before us. Let us have no large threats, or "last extremity" resolutions.

prepare theroughly for the work before us. Let us have no more threats, or "hast extremity" resolutions.

It will be more than difficult to convince our enemies at this moment, at any threats on our part are more than lidls vaporing. Indeed, the attitude itself, of determined resistance to oppression, will be regarded as a mere threat intended only to infinence the pending election.

A few months ago, such an attitude would of itself, we believe, have accomplished, ere this, the entire disorganization of the Black Republican party and the repeal of every nullifying statute from Vermontto lowa. But the Legislature of Virginia timidly permitted the opportunity to slip. Preventive—that is, thoroughly preventive—measures on the part of the Sonthern States are now ontof the question. If the conservative men of the North are not carnet enough and strong enongh to save us, there is no hope of safety in any reliance on the fears of Northern rowdies, fanatics and agitators. Nor will it serve any good purpose for us to wait, wrangling with each other on hypothetical questions about ultimats. What we have to do now is simply what our enemies are doing. We must organize, arm, drill, and discipline with all our might—not in "cinba," but in bettalions, formed according to the prescribed laws of our acceral States—not for bravado or parade, but calmly and faithfully, like men with a sad proepect before us, and determined to be prepared for the werst. "Deliberate promptitude" is now the watchword.

In Virginia, the work of organizing and equipping new volunteer corps has been progressing bravely during the past twelve months. We trust that there will be no relaxation in this respect. We cunnot have too many companies are still altogether manpplied with campendence are still altogether manpplied with campending are still altogether manpplied with campending servers and accareful husbanding of companies are still altogether manpplied with campending servers to the companies are still altogether manpplied with campending servers

Great Railroad Peculations.

[From the Pittsburg Chronicle.]
Twenty-one persons connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad sre charged with stealing the money of the Company. It is said that all but them have confessed their guilt, and endeavored to retain their position on the road by making restoration of their pinnder. We heard of one man disgorging $2,500, and another $15,000. Others had nothing to return—the fare bank and gaming table having served to relieve them of what they "knocked down," almost as fast as it came into their possession. Report has it. The three gentlemen made brief coucluding addresses, and then the people dispersed. There are, I suppose, a baker's dozen of Donglasites in Scott county, and this corporal's guard could not have raised a shout to-day had not the Bellites rallied to the rescue, and assisted them with stentorian lungs and double-soled cowhide boots. Indeed they fraternized wonderfully, and Little Dug's adherents looked astonished at the noise they created.

You may rely upon old Scott being all right in November. She increased her majority in August filty voices, and there will be a gain of over a hundred in the next six weeks. A number of Infunctial Opposition men have come out for the only true candidates of the Union, Breekinridge and Lane.

seems to know. Some of the conductors have resigned; but they are all running their trains yet, and will, we presume, be continued in their position until others can he procured to fill their places.

The way in which the delinquents take their detection, is really refreshing. One says that "it was all a mistake about him; that he had nothing, whatever, to do with the matter, and that it was all a fines about nothing, anyhow." Yet dame Rumor, if she can be believed, credits the same man with making $84 on a single trip, which fast was brought home to him to clearly before the "Govode committee," as the pariles charged with the investigation of the frands are termed, that he had to acknowledge the corn and make good the amount, as well as several other little same, which had slipped into his possession in the same unconscious and illegitimate manner. Then another tells yon that he defies the company, and points to the fact that he lastill in its employ as evidence of his innocence. But so prone is the world to be uncharitable, and look upon the dark side of everything, that this man is reported to have amased a large fortune on the road, and that when asked before the committee how, with a salary of but $90 a month, he contrived in a few years to accumulate $25.000, his answer was that as roon as the party who put the question, and who is said to be worth $300,000 himself, would explain how he made his money, he would give a satisfactory reply. The question was not pressed further, and the conductor left the stand, still master of his $35,000 secret. But as we have stated, all these reports mast be taken with a great deal of silowance. It may be that when stated of silowance. It may be that when set deal of silowance. It may be that when so had be highly gratified to hear that it was so, as the most blamed are the most popular men on the road, and the last whom we would see degraded.

The following appears in the San Antonio Herald of the 7th inst,: Capt. S. D. Sturgls, lat Cavalry, commanding the southern column of the Kioway and Camanche Expedition, which moved from Fort Cobb, in the Department of Texas, some weeks since, reports that on the 7th allt. he came up with a large body of Camanches and Kloways, and, he thinks, Cheyennes, estimated at from six hundred to eight hundred, on the "Republism," about sixty miles southwest of Fort Kearny.

son, about sixty mines southwester Fort Reny.

The Indians had prepared to give bastle, but il appears that their courage took flight on the approach of the troops, and they fled in pursuit of their departed bravery. A running fight, over a space of about affects miles, caused, which terminated by the Indians separating into small parties, and seattering in all directions, rendering further pursuit impossible. Twentyuine Indians are known to have been killed, but from the nature of the eugagement, and the from the nature of the engagement, and the country over which it was fought, it probably will be impossible to tell with certainty the actual loss of the Indians. The loss to the troops was one man inlssing—supposed to have been killed—and three wounded; twofrlendiy Indians were also killed.

NUMBER 70.

Letter from Scott County. ounty Court—Trading—Stock Market Depressed —Political Discussion—Speeches of Jackson, Johnson, and Harlan—Skies Bright. [Correspondence of the Lontsville Courler.] WHITE SULPHUR, Monday, Sept. 17, 1860.

Editors Louisville Courier: In Scott, as in every other commy of the Commonwealth, the mouthly count day invariably draws together the masses. They come to sue and be sued; to traille, barter, dicker, trade, buy, selland be sold. So to-day (feorgetown was overflowing with the sovereigns, and from morning to nightfall, the usually quiet little place, "loveliest village of the plain," was he a ferment of excitement. The streets were crowded with people, and the voices of the lond-monthed auchloneers were heard on every square, "going, going, gone," as they knocked down horses, and togs, and steers, and sheep, and mules, and ominatoes. The merket for stock was, however, on a drag, and a general complaint was expressed by sellers of the exceeding incagreness of purchasers and prices. Still there was a considerable quantity of four-footed animals disposed of, and a sprinkling of Africans brought to be both. animals disposed of, and a sprinking of Africans brought to the block—the latter bringing fine figures, notwithstanding the has and ery ruised about dissolution and the consequent depreciation of slave properly, by the Bell-Danglastia

But the great feature of the day, and that which drew the crowd, was the political discussion between the electors for this Congressional District. Dr. Jackson, of Fayette, opened the ball on behalf of the Squatter candidate. Do you know the doctor? Did you ever see him? Did you ever hear of him before the candidacy of Dongias? It would require the penell of Hogarsh to delineate the M. D. It would take the genius of Irving, in its most fantastic words, to convey to the reader an adequate pen and ink sketch of this npologist of the Little Giaut. Heisthe very embodiment of the grocesque in manner and matter; and there is a perfect homogenity in the man, the candidate, and the principle (if they can be so diguided), which he advocates. Noted all his life for idvosineracles, he has at last mounted the proper hobby, and is riding Donglasism to death, with all the intensity and decrenessof a monomaniac, for Donglasis the central sno of his existence, the alpha and omega of his political creed. But concerning his speech. Would you have me follow a serpentins track and define its curves? Would you have me bottle the froth and foant of a bottle of ginger pop? Would you have your readers inflicted with the reduction ad absurdum of political arguments? If so, draw on me at sight, and I shall try and accomion have your readers inneted with the remission of abundant of political arguments? If so, draw on me at sight, and I shall try and accommodate you by a synopsis of Dr. Jackson's speech. It was erooked and frothy, and the quintescence of absuraity. Iteally, it was "not et preteren nith!"—full of sound and fury, significance of the second have been supported by the second have et preterea nikit"—full of sound and fury, signifying nothing.

Col. Geo. W. Johnson followed in a close, compact, and well considered presentation of the principles of the National Democracy. He planted himself impregnably upon the Constitution and the capality of the States, and defied the opponents of Breekinridge and Lane to successfully assail any position of those eminent statesmen. It is speech was a calm, foreible, and masterly argument. It was one to set the people thinking; which they will remsmber and ponder over in quiet, and which will unquestionably hear good fruit in November. Col. Johnson is a plain farnier, but a gentleman of the information, extensive reading, and a readiness in debate which makes him more than a match for his competitors. Besides, he has the hearts of the people with him. They know him to be one of themselves—a plain, frank, candid, outspoken man, in whom there is no decelt or guile, and whose statements can be implicitly relied upon.

You know his style, and how adrolland ennning and plausible and lawyer-like he is. But all his tricks, his finesse, his special pleadings and dramatic extravaganzas have no effect here. The people of old Scott have been too long and too well trained in the Democratic faith to be bamboarded by the cleanters of I. I state the people of the state of the sta bloozied by the clap-trap of a Union-saver. The General's speech was a mixture of enlogy upon Douglas, penegyrio upon Bell, and denunciation of Breckinridge. He actually confessed that Maj. Breckinridge was not a disunionist, and that the Democratic party of Kenneky was not. But then the cotton States

THE STORM AT NEW ORLEANS—NOBLE ACT OF A FRENCH SAILOR.—The terrible equinoctial gale felt at New Orleans on Saturday had dread-int effects upon the town of Mineburg, Lake Pontchartrain; the waves broke up the wharves, and destroyed a great many small crafts. One schooner was badly staved by ranning against the wharf. The streets were flooded, and the railroad track covered with water for some diamete. A fishing boat, with a young lad aboard, was capsized ut some two hundred yards distance from shore. Four men jumped into a boat and went to the rescue of the lad. One of 9-II M. RUST, OF GREENUP. 10-W. E. ARTHUR, OF KENTON Organize! Organize!

We cannot too earnestly urge upon our friends to go to work and, during the few weeks from now until the Presidential election, perfect a thorough organization in every county, village and precluct in the State. Our intelligence from all quarters is of the most gratifying character. BRECKINKINGE is gaining daily, and it only requires determined work and persistent, energetic action to carry our good old State for him by a rousing majority. We can be defeated only by the most criminal apathy and neglect on our own part. If we but do half our duty, the day le ours, and we, therefore, entreat the friends of sound principles to put on their armor and bear themselves as becoming brave, honest and dermined men.

Douglasism and Republicanism. The Black Republicans are delighted with the present position of DorgLas, and with the Bellveretts are earnestly encouraging him to persevere in his efforts to defeat the Democratic party. The Ciucinnati Gazette, a leading Black Republican paper, looks to the permanent acranks, and we think not without good reason.
Where Squatterism is preached to-day, Black Republicanism will be tolerated a year hence, and before the next Presidential election it will be seen that the bulk of those who now support; Douglas will occupy front seats in the Republican Church. The Gazette says:

We are free to say that we believe a large proportion of his supporters, however it may be with Mr. Douglas himself, will be in the Repulsion ranks before two years have passed. They can have no other ultimate destination, without 'idoubling' an their course, and colors hack loubling" on their course, and going back to e platform of Buchanan and Breckinridge. While the Belleveretts, ! in Kentucky are pretending to be the only true Union men, it seems the leaders of this miserable party, in Alabams, are rampant accessionists. The following, from the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser of the 16th inst., we commend to the attention of our Union-saving contemporary of the Jour

"No union with slaveholders," and "down with the Federal Constitution" as "a league with death and a covenant with hell." The Massachusetts Republicans are getting on.

We publish in another column this morning, an interesting letter from R. F. Johnston, once connected with the Lonisville Times, afterwards editor of the Yeoman, subsequently editor of the Statesman, and finally editor of the Cynthiana Age, all Democratic Journals. Mr. Johnston was last winter Assistant Secretary of the Senate, elsected by the Democratic Senators. He now alains to be a Douglas man, but for a consideration, adits a Bell paper. TO THE LADIES! HAVING returned from New York, we are new re-FANCY AND VARIETY GOODS, PERFUME RIES AND TOYS, Than we giver had before, [35] J. SUMB, a man to the Presidency of the United States, by the vote alone of one section, who is pickinged to use all the powers of the Government for the destruction of the rights and property of the other section, would not justify the weaker in resistance, but that if in such an event the fifteen Southern States should assume to determine on the extent of their danger, and to spicitly withdraw from it, he should regard their nation as revolt, and as such to be pnushed with all the force of the Government. Than this we can conceive of us dectrine more dangerons to the South. It contounds resistance to established law by individuals, which it would be the duty of the Uhief Magistrate to punish, with the penceable secession of State-from a compact no longer consistent with the interest or existence of its constituents; but it treats the Union as a perpetual houd, exacting nuconditional submission forever from a weaker to a stronger section. It strips the States of the chief attribute of sovereignty, to wit: the right to determine, when their existence is put to hazard, as to the means useessary to their preservation, and affirms that, while it is legitimateln the people of the North having control of the Geueral Government, through it, to inflict upon the States of the South whatever wrongs it may be consistent with their luterest or feelings to impose, it would be treason in the people of the South to obey the order of their States in opposition to federal anthority.

Franght with error as this doctrine is, subversive of that constitutional theory in which alone the rights of the States are to be found, it has at this moment, and under the circumsances, a bloody eignificance. The enemics of the South in the Northern States have selected Abraham Lincoln to lead them in the "irrepressible conflict" which he has proclaimed. Mr. Seward, the most distinguished connection of such section, declares at Boston that the cection of Lincoln is sure, that with it the power of slavery will end, and that the "irrepressible conflict" w will end, and that the "irrepressible couffict" will be pressed to its inlamous and bloody close.

At such a moment the proclamation of such sentiments by Judge Douglas, (coming immediately after Seward's Bostou speech,) attered here at the South, and addressed to the citizeus of a State whose Executive deciared to General Jackson that Federal troops should only cross her borders over the bodies of her sons, by a man from the North, from the neighborhood of Lincoln himself, a candidate for the Presidency, volunteering his counsel to Lincoln, and, in the event of his election, his aid to wage war upon our people and to slay them in battle as rebels, or hang them lu cold blood as traitors, if they shall render obedieuce to State rather than Federal anthority, is repugnant to every sense of right, and merits from the people of the South the severest rebuke. Such a rebuke we sincerely hope will be given the doctrine and its anthor at the November elections.

What the British Cuilet Tribes of the Reception of the Prince of Wales.—It is stated that private letters from distinguished gentlemen connected with the British Court, stated in the Queen and Prince Consort, and the Royal Family generally, are delighted with the Prince's reception in America, and look forward with atili greater pleasure to the sort of welcome he will receive in the United States, especially from the President. This question naturally comes up in the mind of every one who looks at the conrec and reads the speeches now being mada by Judge Douglas. We find him everywhere assailing the Administration and Mr. Breckinridge. He has nothing to say against John Bell, uor against his old rival and enemy, Lincoln. With the Know Nothing candidate, John Bell, he has entered into a coalition in various States, and is prepared to do so wherever such coalition can be made available against Mr. Breckinridge and his friends. With such facts constantly presented, is it any wonder that the question, "lishe a Democrat" is so often asked? Is it und evident to all uninds that Mr. Douglas is working

Can Southern men, undersuch circumstances, give support to Mr. Douglas? Can true Democrate anywhere aid lilm in this crueade against the Democrate party? Can any man be a Democrate his prefers the cicetion of an open and avowed chemy to a true, tried, and patriotic Democrat with whom he may differ in opinion upon some slugle point of doctrine? The question is one that should be met honestly and frankly; and if anch course be (as we helieve it is) utterly luconsistent with true Democracy, then every true Democrat throughout the country should indignantly refuse to support any man who thus proves himself unworthy of confidence.—[Baltimore Republican. First Fair in the West, at Levington, Kentucky.

To Kentneky belongs the honor of having organized the first State Agricultural Society in the West was gotten up by Col. Lewis Sanders, the celebrated importer of Durham cattle, in 1817. At the close of the war of 1812, Col. Sanders was living at Lexington, and was deeply luterested in Agriculture. Observing the beneficent influences of cattle shows cast of the Alieghenies, and in England, he determined to trylts influence npon Kentneklans. He published in the Lexington newspapers that a "Grand Cattle Show and Fair, free for everybody, would come off on his farm, adjoining Sandersville, on the — day of July, 1816. Premiums in silver cups to be awarded." The five Judges were named, viz: Harry Innis, of Franklin, Judge of the Federal Cont; Mr. Natbaniel Hart, of Woodford county; Capt. John Fowler, of Lexington; Col. Hubbard Taylor, of Clarke; and Capt. John Jonett, of Bath—a "good judge of men and animals."

The novelty attracted an immense assemblage.

Jonett, of Bath—a "good judge of men and animals."

The novelly attracted an linmense assemblage. "Nothing like it had been seen in the country before. The fluest cattle lu the State were tiere. Capt. Smith's fanons buil, Buzzard, (named after the fanous English race horse,) Instity's magnificent brindle buil, and unsay otherine cattle of each sex, of the old Patton breat There was a good display of sheep, (flue wool being then of great importance,) hogs, &c. The judges exercised the duties as signed them with assiduly, awarding and distributing the prendums of fitteen to twenty silver ups, costing $12 each. Among the visitors were Governor Polndexter, and other prominentmen.

The rext year another Fair was held at the same place, with similar anecess. These lists were held on Col. Sanders' farm. He selected and named the judges and upon his personal application, the chileans of Lexington contributed the first that the selection of the sel named the pinger, and upon in spersonal apparection, the cilizens of Lexington contributed the funds to pay for the silver cups.

At the tecond exhibition, it was determined to organize t State Agricultural Society, and al a meeting appointed at Lexington, a constitution was adopted, and Governor Isnac Shelby was elected Problem, and Thomas T. Barr Secretary. The nuxt year a "Cattle Show and Fair" was held as Lexington, and two others were held under the same organization at Lexington, at "Fowler's Garden." Bourbon county was the first to branch off from the Lexington organization, and held Fairs for the county. The present Kenneky State Agricultural Society was organized January 3d, 1838.

MUSIC AT FAIRS.

MUSIC AT PAIRS. Music at Agricultural Fairs was first recom-mended by Solon Robinson, of Kentucky, in 1841, and the recommendation was soon after carried lute effect at the State Fair for the first THE FIRST LADY AT A FAIR.

This Fair, once famous in Irish song and story, when the Lord Mayor of Dublin went in procession, and dined in a tent set apart for him, and the "Quality" need to join in the dance and the frolic—latterly the diagrace of Ireland, as the resort of the thieves and gamblers of the United Kingdom, and the corruption of the thong hites by drunkeuness and debanchery—is at last extinct.

The following, from the Freeman, will tell the tale of its overshrow. The city is extending in tale of its overshrow. The city is extending in that direction, and a splendid Protestant church, in connection with the Molyneux Asylum for blind females, and a naguificent Roman Catholic parlsh church are in progress of erection in the neighborhood.

bilind females, and a magnificent Koman Catholic parish church are in progress of erection in the neighborhood:

This annual gathering of infamy and reckless depravity is dead—stone dead. Yesterday being the Sunday preceding the 26th iustant, was, or was to have been, "walking Sunday," but the famed "Brook" was descreed, and the "interested individuals" looked townwards in vainfor the arrival of their dupes and fools from the eity.—Many were the lamentations passed on the departed glories of the "Brook," when thousands of men were made stark mad with liquid poison, manufactured pecially for the foir—when young women were ruined by hundreds and sent out abandoned outcasts on the streets—when thieves and robbers held their carnival, and when vivid glimpses of hell were seen on earth. How the "interested persons" did mourn and complain of the injustice of preventing the people tasking "rational enjoyment and recreation," and the said interested parties were unanimous in their determination to make an attempt to hold "the fair" on this day week, and to postyone "walking Sunday" to the next Sabbath. The authorities are well prepared to uncet a move of this kind, and the first person who puts his foot on the fair green without the sanction of Mr. Buller, the proprietor, will be given in charge as a tresspasser. It is most gratifying to be enabled to state that the people have taken the affectionate and parental advice of the good Archibishop to keep away from Donnybrook Fair, and the promoters of this annual abomination may rest assured that the working claeses of Dublin will prefer to listen to and act on the advice of their Archibishop and elergy than to be led away to folly and misery by persons who have no object to acrve but their own pecuniary lucreste.

Much laughter was occasioned on the arrival of the Trafalgar steamer at the North wall yesterday, by an alf fresso artist appearing on the deck with his "interry-go-round." The proprietor of the rotary contrivance, which was called the "Flying Dutchman," was sa when he was informed that he had taken his long yoyage with all his traps for nothing, and it would be well for his brother practitioners in Liverpool and elsewhere not to lose their time and nioney by coming hera, as no fair will be permitted to be held at Domybrook. Men with wheels of fortune and "trick-o-the-loop" have niready taken the hint, and have gone west to try "fische fortune" at rustle fairs and horse races. The police have received their orders, and they will act up to them vigorously; and all good men have reason to congratulate themselves that measures have been taken to put an end forever to that national disgrace, social pest, and nnio that national disgrace, social pest, and nal ance—"Donnybrook Fair." ERIGENA. P. S. The Government have declined appoint lug a paid R. C. Ednention Commissioner.

Natural Barometer.

The spider, says as emineut naturalist, is almost universally regarded with disgnst and abhorrence; yet, after all, it is one of the most interesting, if not the most needle, of the insect tribe. Since the days of Robert Bruce, it has been celebrated as a model for perseverance, while in industry and ingenuity it has no rival among insects. But the most extraordinary fact in the natural history of this insect, is the remarkable presentiment it appears to have of an approaching change in the weather. Barometers, at best, only forwiell the state of the weather with certainty for about twenty-four hours, and are frequently very fallible guides, partienlarly when they point to activate a principal history of the makes the principal history of the most wounded fair. But we may be sure the weather will be fine tweive or fourteen days, when the spider makes the principal history is miles the state of the atmosphere ludicates with certainty that this great expenditure will not be made in value. Let the weather be ever so bad, we may conclude with certainty that it will soon change to be settled fair when we so: the spider repair the damages which his web lar received. It is obvious how important this lufslitble indication of the state of the weather must heli many instances, particularly to agriculturists.

WHAT WE ARE MADE OF.—The following is from an article by O. W. Holmes:

If the reader of this paper lives another year, his self-conscious principle will have nigrated from his present tenement to another, the raw materials even of which are not yet put together. A portion of that body of which is to be, will ripen in the corn of his next harvest. Another portion of his future person he will purchase, or others will purchase for him, headed up in the form of certain barrels of potatoes. A third fraction is yet to be gathered in the southern rice field. The limbs with which he is then to walk will be clad with fiesh horrowed from the tenants of many stalls and pastures, now unconscious of their doom.

The very organs of speech with which he is to talk so wisely, plead so cloquently, or spenk so effectively, must first serve his humble brethren to hleat, to beliow, and for all the varied untermice of bristled or feathered barnyard life. His bones themselves are, to a great extent, in passe, and not sase. A bag of phosphate of lime, which he has ordered for his grounds, coutains a large part of what is to be his skeleton. And more than all this, and by far the greater part of his body is nothing at all but water, the main substance of his scattered members is to be looked for in the reservoir, in the eiouds that float over his head, or diffused among them all.

DRAMMETH'S PILLS

Are growing more in favor, with the public. It is now conceded they are tha best purgative yet put forth from the world of medicine. The time will surely arrive when they will suparceds all other purgatives whatever. Tha ingredients of which thay are composed can scarcely be obtained by druggists or shanakers of other pills. Dr. Baaxisseru has them grown and prepared without regard to the sepense. And this care to make a popular purgative is appreciated, as their seles indicate. Other purgative is are dragging a flickering existence. And yet they may have some merit. But Baandauri's Phili are asfe and sure—self, because they operate solely to impure his and sure-sefe, because they operate solely to impure hu mors. No valuable fluid is touched; only effete or work out material, which, when taken out of the hody, leared out material, which, when team out of the long, learner it stronger. They are as pleasant as a truly effective medicine can be. To say that they will not sometimes give pain would not be true, but the pain they give Is only because they remove those crude and bad humors from the blood which are the occasion of disease. They open acture a venue, and this cannot always be done plassantly.

THE RIVER was rising rather slowly yester day, with four feet three inches water in the canal by the mark in the evening. Buring the previous ty four hours it had risen only two inches at the twenty four hours it had risen only two incaos at the head of the fails, and five inches at Fortland, making eight and a half feet on the bar. The westher is clear and pleasant. Along the lower Ohio the rise may keep the river at its present stage, with five and and a half to six feet water on the bars. At Cincianati, yesterday, the river had fallen four taches, and it was failing at Pittsburg at moon, with four feet water la the channel.

We see it stated that Cupi. Ed. Montcomery la to take charge of the New Uncle Sam ln

The Republic, in charge of Capt. A. i, was at New Orleans Sunday loading for Mem-The equinoctial storm that visited New tirleans and Mobile last Saturday was very severe, einking five boats at the latter port. At New Or cans it was so violest that no boats could leave por or twenty-four hours, and all others were compelled to lie up wherever the storm caught them. The fol-lowing is from the New Orleans Delta, of Sanday: lowing is from the New Orleans Delta, of Sunday;

The equinoctial visitation came upon na yeakerdae morning, bright and early, and the gale blew with brief latermission till late in the evening. There were any quantity of rain with it, and, altogether, it was a cheeriess day. On tha levee but little was doing, and many of the boats had to lie over.
From Red river the accounts are still favorable.
The Shreveport Sonthwester, of the 12th, reports a rise of six feet. Still we cannot hope for minch in provement as long as the Musslesippi remains low, and lea draw back on mavigation between the month of Red river and Alexandria. A rise in Onachita is also reported. The Buffington, it is said, has gone up to Cannote.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, I WEDNASDA EVENINO, September 19, 1860. There has been a very material falling off in busices within the past ten days, and the market may be reported dull la all departments. There are but very lew Southern orders on hand. Our jobbers and dry goods dealers are meeting with a lull in their sales, and the Grain and Produce market is very sales, and the train and Produce market is very quiet, with no movement whatever on the part of speculators. This will give the market time to fairly settle, and in the end prove beneficial to dealers and improve the fail trade. The Money market though nominally unchanged, is very stringent, with happily only a limited demand.

The weather is clear and pleasant, with heavy rains easily in the weak which have improved the rains early in the week, which have improved the prospects for the crope; while the river continues at an excellent navigable stage for the season of the year. In fact, we have had no low water this Onr quotations apply to wholesale prices, nules

New York, Sept. 19.—The action of the recent Railroad Convention In this city has been erroneously stated. It was decided to give each of the four lines from Boston, weetward, a water tariff to central points in the West. The rates to be charged over the routes are to be 15c on the first class, 11c on the second, 7c on the third, and 5c on the forethe deciding west-cru chiea thus placing New York to the leading west-cru chiea thus placing New York nearer the Boston rates than previously in regard to the petition of the western companica for the privilege of controlling the rates for easiern bound freight. The Convention adopted a resolution recognizing and cordially approving of the association of the two lines of railroad connecting the East with Cincinnati and Indianapolis, and agreeing hereaffer to consult the head of such association in making any changes in rates of eastern bound traffic.
